NON-RESIDENT STUDENT ACCEPTANCE AGREEMENT

A resident student is defined by Washington Administrative Code (WAC 392-137-115) as a student whose principle abode (i.e. where the student lives a majority of the time) is within the physical boundaries of the district.

As per board policy #3141, the superintendent or designee will accept or reject an application for non-resident admission based upon the following standards:

1. Whether space is available in the grade level or classes at the building in which the student desires to be enrolled;

2. Whether appropriate educational programs or services are available to improve the student's condition as stated in requesting release from his or her district of residence; and

3. Whether the student's attendance in the district is likely to create a risk to the health or safety of other students or staff.

4. Whether the district has already accepted as many non-resident students for the school year as permitted by this policy.

5. Whether the student's disciplinary records indicate a history of violent or disruptive behavior or gang membership (a gang means a group of three or more persons with identifiable leadership that on an ongoing basis regularly conspires and acts in concert mainly for criminal purposes).

6. Whether the student has been expelled or suspended from a public school for more than ten consecutive days, in which case the student may apply for admission under the district's policy for readmission of expelled students.

A student's acceptance will be revoked if the student develops a pattern of disruptive or dangerous behavior, non-attendance, tardiness, or lack of satisfactory academic progress occurs or it is determined that any information provided is incorrect, falsified, or incomplete.

I have reviewed the information provided on this form, and I hereby verify that the information is correct and current. I agree to these conditions and understand that the Conway School District retains the right to revoke a non-district student's enrollment if a pattern of distruptive/dangerous behavior, non-attendance, tardiness, or lack of satisfactory academic progress occurs or it is determined that any information provided is incorrect, falsified, or incomplete.
